THE NATURE OF THINGS

Book the Tooth Sleuth, What’s Bugging Belva?, and A Salamander Tale as a group to turn your gallery space into the perfect environment for learning about the natural world around us! Each rental comes with a $500 credit at The Education Store, Purdue’s online resource for educational materials.

Category: Nature and Science
Audience: Pre-K through 5th graders and their families
Square feet: Approximately 1,200

The Purdue Agriculture Exhibit Design Center combines world-class research from Purdue University with fun, interactive, informative, and hands-on features to create museum quality exhibits that bring cutting-edge science and technology to life for audiences of all ages. It’s Discovery & Creativity To Go! Purdue University is an equal access/equal opportunity institution.