

Scot Ortman is CEO and President of Kokomo Grain. He earned a B.S. in Agricultural Economics in 1985 and was a grain buyer for Continental Grain in Minneapolis, MN. Scot joined Kokomo Grain in 1988 as a futures/options trader, and later managed the Edinburgh, Indiana facility from 1993 – 2001. He became the Chief Operating Officer in 2001, and was promoted to CEO and President in 2003.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURAL ECONOMICS

2017 DISTINGUISHED AGRICULTURE ALUMNUS

SCOT A. ORTMAN, CEO, KOKOMO GRAIN

Friday, March 3, 2017

7:30 AM Invited Breakfast with Dean, Jay Akridge

9:00 AM Podcast with Department Head, Ken Foster – Kran 653

10:00 AM KRAN 758 Panel Discussion: *Future Directions in Grain Trading: Lessons from Kokomo Grain Company

11:30 AM Invited Lunch - Kran 661

12:45 PM DRAWING ROOM: DAA Remarks and Dessert Reception

1:45 PM College of Agriculture Activities – PMU Ballrooms