January 2017 Question of the Month Results

January’s Question of the Month is based on PIFF’s FB-BRAG: Family Business Functionality Assessment. Find the downloadable version of the FB-BRAG here.

How often are you satisfied with the outcome when a decision has to be made in favor of what is best for the family versus the family business?

How often are you satisfied that you can turn to people at home and work for help when something is troubling you?

How often are you satisfied with the way others in your family and business share time together?

How often are you satisfied that your family and business accept and support your ideas or thoughts?