

AGR 113 Resume Checklist – Please Follow Carefully – Complete and Check Off Each Item Prior To Turning In Your Resume

Resume Due Dates:

Sept. 12 - One Copy To Critique In Class plus One Copy To Turn In

Sept. 26 – CCO staff-critiqued and signed copy stapled to your improved copy (post CCO input).

For detailed guidance and examples please follow the examples of chronological resumes in the CCO Handbook

<https://www.cco.purdue.edu/Students/WhatWeOffer#CCOHandbook>

Please note in particular the discussions on “Power Verbs For Resumes, Developing A Winning Resume” and examples of chronological resumes, which are the type you are to write for AGR 113.

The Purdue University CCO home page is www.cco.purdue.edu

This site provides many other valuable career search and support resources, tutorials and workshops.

The myCCO web page (where you create your profile and upload your resume) is

<https://www.cco.purdue.edu/#myCCO>

In writing your resume please target a specific employer for whom you'd like to work, choosing from the list of companies coming to interview. That list is available at

<https://purdue-csm.symplcity.com/events/a5b1f74f57ded9a04d71ece71f4ca151/employers>

Companies on this list generally provide a link to the key background information you'll need to properly research the company prior to your interview. Your company research outline is due in class on September 5.

The College of Agriculture Career Fair web site is https://ag.purdue.edu/oap/career/pages/student_career_fairs_main.aspx

Please see also the following guidelines for ideas on how to tailor your resume toward a specific position/employer.

General Resume Guidelines

Name and Contact Information

(Optional - Career/Job Objective)

- Notes “what, where, with whom”.
- Clear, concise statement.

Education

- List most recent first, stipulating dates of attendance, major, date of graduation or expected graduation, diploma or degree conferred or expected.
- Note other relevant educational experiences (e.g. Pesticide Applicator Training Core, Category 1A) or special emphasis in your education.

Work Experience

- Note company name, location, and dates of employment.
- Note position title (e.g. Field Research Intern).
- Note details of specific responsibilities and demonstrate their accomplishment.
- Bullets should lead off with action verbs (e.g. Managed, Organized, Coordinated, etc).

Extra-Curricular Activities/Honors

Emphasize leadership, responsibility and achievement.

Interests/Hobbies

Demonstrate breadth of interests as appropriate.

General Construction Of Resume

- Concise (keep to one page).
- List items in bullet format where possible.
- Neat, properly sized, professional font size and style.
- Organize the text in an efficient, balanced, and eye-appealing manner (e.g. not too much white space, left justify and avoid excessive hanging indents).
- Check spelling and grammar.
- Avoid use of the personal pronoun “I”