

Pinney Purdue Field Day Wednesday, August 23, 2017

at Pinney Purdue Ag Center

NOTE:
Pinney is on
CENTRAL time

Located 5 1/2 miles East of Valparaiso or 1 mile West of Wanatah on US Highway 30 then North 1/2 mile on County Line Road (Porter/LaPorte). Watch for signs.

7:30 – 8:15 am CDT Registration, PARP Sign-up, Exhibits

NOTE: Register at the new machine shed on east side of County Line Road

8:15 – 9:15 am CDT Welcome, Introductions & Outlook

- Michael Langemeier – Crop Net Return Prospects or Agricultural Business Climate

9:20 am – 12:00 pm CDT Tours and Program Presentations

- Bill Johnson – Weed Management in a New Era of Herbicide Technologies
- Shaun Casteel – Managing Soybeans for Top Yields
- Lyndon Kelley – Water Use Efficiency in Irrigation
- Mike Leasure – Using UAVs to Help You Do Your Scouting Work

12:00 pm CDT Sponsored Pork Chop Lunch

- Visit exhibits, sponsors & visit with your neighbors
- Pinney Purdue Field Day sponsored in part by:

INDIANA
SOYBEAN
ALLIANCE

Pinney Purdue Field Day Twilight Program

5:30 – 6:00 pm CDT Registration, PARP Sign-up, Exhibits

6:00 pm – 8:00 pm CDT Program Presentations

- Tony Vyn – Fertilizer Management and Corn Nutrient Balance during Grain Fill
- Peter Goldsbrough – Understanding the Facts and Myths of Genetic Engineering
- Phil Woolery – Staying Safe in the Fields: Updated Worker Protection Standards

You can receive PARP at either the field day or twilight session (not both).

- ⇒ Exhibits from local agribusinesses, dealers, and ag services companies
- ⇒ Certified Crop Adviser CEUs and Commercial Applicator CCHs have been applied for
- ⇒ Private Applicator Recertification Program (PARP) Credit - This is an opportunity to fulfill 1/3 of your Private Applicator Permit requirements (with payment of $10 fee; bring license)
- ⇒ More information and directions at www.agriculture.purdue.edu/pac/ppac/

If you have a disability that requires assistance for your participation in this event, please contact Purdue Extension-La Porte County at 219-324-9407 or Pinney PAC at 219-733-2379 at least 3 days prior to the event.