WILDLIFE AND WOODLOT MANAGEMENT, 1 P.M. TO 3:30 P.M. (EST)
• Native warm season grass (NWSG) in wildlife management
• Non-native invasive plant species control in woodlots

FORAGE AND BEEF COW MANAGEMENT, 4 P.M. TO 8:30 P.M. (EST)
• NWSG for grazing forages
• Taking and understanding a forage test
• What do different volumes of forages look like to meet a cow’s nutritional requirements?
• Body condition scoring of beef cattle
• Demonstration of a Bud Box for cattle handling
• Meal at 7 p.m.; (RSVP required)
• How to fix nutritional shortfalls for cow stage of production and performance goals based on forage test and body condition score

Field Day Presenters
Pat Keyser, Professor of Forestry, Wildlife and Fisheries, University of Tennessee
Ron Rathfon, Extension Forester, Purdue University
Keith Johnson, Professor of Agronomy and Extension Forage Specialist, Purdue University
Nick Minton, Beef Systems Specialist, Purdue University
Jason Tower, Superintendent of SIPAC, Purdue University

RSVP for meal by August 31, 2018
To RSVP for meal, contact:
Dubois County Extension Office
1482 Executive Blvd., Suite A
Jasper, IN 47546-9300
812-482-1782
duboisces@purdue.edu