

March 2017 Question of the Month Results

Is there any confusion about the roles and responsibilities of the family members involved in the family business?

If yes, what level of confusion is generated concerning roles and responsibilities of the family members involved in the family business?

