2022 INDIANA YOUTH CROP SCOUTING COMPETITION

THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 2022
PURDUE DTC: WEST LAFAYETTE, INDIANA

UP FOR THE CHALLENGE?

TEAMS
- Indiana high school students completing grades 7-12
- Teams of 4-5 students
- Limit 1 team per sponsoring organization (FFA, school, club, etc.)
- Due to the nature of this event, we can host a maximum of 12 teams in 2022

JUDGING STATIONS
- Corn growth and development
- Soybean growth and development
- Disease identification and management
- Insect identification and management
- Weed identification and management
- Field scouting and diagnostics
- Plant nutrition and soil fertility
- Forages
- Cover crops
- Calibration

TIMING (EST)
- 09:30 AM: Team check-in
- 10:00 AM: Station rotation explanation
- 10:15 AM: Competition start
- 03:30 PM: Awards presentation
- 04:15 PM: Teams depart

MORE INFORMATION: https://bit.ly/35mQVwB
EVENT CONTACT: dtc@purdue.edu

EVENT OBJECTIVE
To educate students on necessary skills that are key to integrated pest management and help them develop general agronomic skills useful in future careers related to agricultural and environmental sciences. To provide students an opportunity to interact with Extension specialists and graduate students from different areas within agriculture.