

Galerucella life cycle in a wetland habitat

adults go into dormant state (diapause) in wetland new adults emerge, feed heavily on loosestrife in wetland mature larvae move to soil, pupate eggs hatch, larvae feed on loosestrife until mature adults feed, mate, lay eggs, die adults emerge from dormancy adults in dormant state (diapause) in wetland

