

Purdue Women in Agriculture

2024 Award Application

Sponsored in part by:

Annually, the Purdue Women in Agriculture (WIA) Team recognizes Indiana women who are leaders and innovators and have contributed to the success of Indiana Agriculture. The Purdue WIA Team is accepting applications for the 2024 Purdue Women in Agriculture Awards.

Nominees will be placed in either the Leadership or Achievement categories for award consideration as deemed appropriate by the WIA Team. Women who are interested in the award may nominate themselves, or be nominated by someone else.

Previous winners include women with integral roles in their personal and/or family farm business, corporate and non-profit leaders, educators, veterinarians, and women in public service roles.

Winners will be recognized at the Indiana State Fair during the Celebration of Ag ceremony.

Criteria for Eligibility

1. Women who have provided leadership and positively contributed to Indiana Agriculture.
2. The nominee must reside in Indiana.
3. The nominee must be part of an agriculture enterprise, agribusiness, farm, or commodity organization that operates in Indiana.
4. The nominee must not have previously received either the achievement or leadership award.
5. The nominee may not be currently employed by Purdue University.
6. The nominee must be present for the awards ceremony and activities related to the award given at the Indiana State Fair (date TBD). After the initial review by the Women in Ag Team, the award finalists will be contacted to confirm their attendance at the awards ceremony.

Guidelines for Submission

1. The application will be considered for 2 consecutive years. If the nominee is not chosen in those 2 years, the application may be resubmitted for consideration.
2. Two letters of support should be submitted with the application.
