Indiana Wood Industry Facts

Primary Wood Products Industry Facts

- 254 firms comprise the primary industry in Indiana.
- 4,767 individuals are employed by the primary industry.
- $167 million in compensation paid by the primary industry.
- Approximately $1.5 billion in value of shipments are added to the states' economy by the primary industry.
- Annual average wage throughout the primary industry is averaged around the amount of $34,993.

Secondary Wood Products Industry Facts

- 762 firms comprise the secondary wood products manufacturing industry in Indiana.
- 26,070 individuals are employed by the secondary industry.
- Average wage of $36,367 has been paid by the secondary industry.
- Approximately $4 billion in value of shipments are added to the states' economy by the secondary industry.

Ancillary Factors of the Industry

- 349 firms comprise the ancillary part of the industry in Indiana.
- 6,505 individuals are employed by the establishments.
- Average wage of $47,368 has been paid by the firms to the workforce.
- Approximately $3 billion in value of shipments are added to the states' economy by the ancillary activities held within the industry.