

Entry-Level Landscape Designer (0-3 Years Experience)

Duke Design Group | Full-Time

Duke Design Group (DDG) is a boutique landscape architecture firm located in Nashville, Tennessee specializing in innovative and highly detailed designs for high-end residential properties. Our projects range from classical to modern styles, with a focus on creating timeless, site-sensitive environments. Based in the southeastern U.S., we maintain a hands-on approach with direct client and contractor interaction.

We are seeking a creative and detail-oriented individual who is eager to learn, has an appreciation for the arts, and enjoys contributing to all aspects of the design process from concept development to construction documentation. This role involves working in a small, collaborative office environment and includes travel to project sites.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct site analysis and gather reference photos
- Collaborate on conceptual and technical site designs
- Create design presentations, renderings, and element mockups
- Assist with construction document preparation and city submittals
- Participate in client and design team meetings

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Landscape Architecture from an accredited university
- Proficiency in AutoCAD, Adobe Suite (Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign)
- Strong design sensibility and attention to detail
- Ability to translate concepts into working drawings
- Interest in hands-on learning and field observation

Benefits:

- Competitive salary
- Health, dental, and vision insurance
- Paid time off (PTO) and holidays
- Quarterly profit sharing and bonus potential
- Travel and on-site experience to see designs come to life

This is a great opportunity to be part of a small, dynamic team where you'll gain direct experience in all aspects of high-end residential landscape design.

To apply, please submit your resume, portfolio, and a brief cover letter to inquiry@dukedesigngroup.com.
