

PERU

WINTER SESSION

INTERNATIONAL ENGAGEMENT IN AGRICULTURE

Dates: Dec 28, 2025 - Jan 8, 2026

Credits: BTNY 4311 or ASEC 4311 - 3 credits

Locations: Lima, Cusco, Ollantaytambo, Allas, Aguas Calientes. San Jeronimo, Miraflores

Estimated Cost: $3400, includes accommodations, activities, in-country transport, & some meals. Flight not included

Program Leaders: Jeneen Fields (fieldsje@purdue.edu), & Mark Russell (mrussell@purdue.edu)

Callout: April 23, 2025 @ 5:00 PM Lilly 1-436

Students will engage in a collaborative, international program focused on sustainable community development, applying their discipline knowledge and technical skills to address real-world challenges. This experience will emphasize intercultural communication, market analysis, and business planning, with a specific focus on enhancing community food security. The program, designed to foster mutual learning between Peruvian and Purdue students, includes an 8-week pre-departure seminar and an 8-week post-course session, culminating in three academic credits.

Study Abroad Today

AGAD 104

agabroad@purdue.edu

@AgBoilersAbroad

