

COSTA RICA

SPRING BREAK

NATURAL HISTORY IN COSTA RICA

Dates: March 13–22, 2026

Credits: FNR 49800- 2 credits

Locations: San José, Sarapiquí, El Copal, Cerro Las Vueltas, Sierpe, San Josecito, Corcovado, Caño Island, Tárcoles

Estimated Cost: $3600, includes airfare, accommodations, activities, in-country transportation and meals.

Program Leaders: Patrick Ruhl
(pruhl@purdue.edu) & Megan Gunn
(mlgunn@purdue.edu)

Callout: Sept 18, 2025 @ 6 pm in PFEN G077

Get ready for an unforgettable adventure through Costa Rica! You'll explore rainforest trails at Tirimbina, spot exotic birds at sunrise, and hike through the misty páramo at Los Quetzales National Park. The trip takes you all the way to Corcovado—one of the most biodiverse parks in the world—and out to Caño Island for snorkeling in crystal-clear waters. With night hikes, river explorations, and hands-on learning at ecolodges, every day brings a new discovery and an amazing story to tell.

Study Abroad Today!

AGAD 104

agabroad@purdue.edu

@AgBoilersAbroad

