

ITALY

SHORT-TERM SUMMER

A TASTE OF SOUTHERN ITALY: PRODUCTION, PREPARATION, MARKETING

Dates: May 11-22, 2026

Credits: AGEC 49800 – 3 credits

Locations: Rome, Naples, Pompeii, Benevento, Matera, Bari, Ostuni, Polignano a Mare, and Alberobello.

Estimated Cost: $6100, includes some meals, accommodation, activities, transportation, admission fees

Program Leaders: Andy Oppy (aoppy@purdue.edu) & Beth Byrd (byrd12@purdue.edu)

Callout: TBD

Travel through southern Italy while experiencing its world-famous food, culture, and history! From sampling street food in Naples and exploring the ruins of Pompeii, to making mozzarella and tasting fresh olive oil on a local farm, you'll see firsthand how food is produced and celebrated. Wander the ancient streets of Matera, relax along the Adriatic Sea, and take a cooking class in Rome after visiting the Vatican and Colosseum. This program blends incredible cuisine, hands-on experiences, and unforgettable sights—an immersive journey you won't want to miss!

Study Abroad Today

AGAD 104

agabroad@purdue.edu

@AgBoilersAbroad

