

Constitution of the Agriculture Faculty Purdue University

Revised – May 2023

ARTICLE I. COMPOSITION AND ADMINISTRATION

- A. Composition of the Agriculture Faculty. All employees with the rank of at least Assistant Professor and those having the rank of Instructor for at least two years shall be eligible to vote on all Agriculture Faculty matters. Included are those individuals appointed as an Adjunct Faculty (as defined in Executive Memorandum C-12, 25 August 1987), or a Clinical Faculty member. Research Faculty members may vote on all items, excepting curricular matters. Associate and Affiliate administrative or professional appointees are specifically excluded.
- B. Chief Administrative Officer. The chief administrative officer of the Agriculture Faculty is the Dean of Agriculture.
- C. Instructional Department. An Instructional Department as used in this document refers to an academic department in the College.

ARTICLE II. POWERS OF THE AGRICULTURE FACULTY

- A. The Agriculture Faculty shall have jurisdiction, consistent with University policy, of specific internal affairs, and shall discuss and make recommendations regarding all matters affecting its responsibilities in teaching, research, and extension. Specifically, the Agriculture Faculty shall:
  - 1. Establish course content, curricula, requirements, and certification for graduation.
  - 2. Advise the Dean in matters of educational policy and long-term planning that affect the responsibilities of the Agriculture Faculty.
  - 3. Advise the Dean and others on matters that concern Agriculture Faculty and student welfare.

ARTICLE III. MEETINGS OF THE AGRICULTURE FACULTY

- A. The powers of the Agriculture Faculty shall be exercised at open meetings of the entire Agriculture Faculty, convened after proper written notification. The presiding officer shall be the Dean or their designee. The Dean shall appoint a Secretary of the Agriculture Faculty who shall keep the minutes of all meetings and a Parliamentarian who shall rule on all questions of procedure.
  - 1. In-person meetings shall be called at least once during each of the fall and spring semesters of the University calendar, at times set by the Agenda and Policy Committee.
  - 2. In addition to the in-person fall and spring semester meeting, virtual synchronous meetings may be scheduled during the academic year.
  - 3. At least one week prior to the announced date of the in-person or virtual meeting, the Agenda and Policy Committee shall distribute an announcement and agenda for the meeting to each voting member.
  - 4. Fifteen percent of the Agriculture Faculty shall constitute a quorum at an Agriculture Faculty meeting, including virtual faculty meetings. No meeting shall be held in the absence of a quorum.
  - 5. Decisions of the Agriculture Faculty shall be reached by a simple majority of the Agriculture Faculty attending any called meeting.

- a. Voting will be by secret ballot if requested by any Agriculture Faculty member present.
  - b. A mail or electronic vote by the Agriculture Faculty shall be conducted on any issue if requested by any voting Agriculture Faculty member and approved by one-fifth of the members present. Issues in all mail or electronic ballots shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast.
6. To encourage informed and efficient discussion of Agriculture Faculty business, only items appearing on the distributed agenda may be acted upon at an in-person or virtual meeting, unless consent is voted by three-fourths of the members present. Written reports submitted for information only, even though not requiring immediate Agriculture Faculty action, shall whenever possible be distributed in advance of the meeting, and be noted on the agenda for question and discussion only. Any Agriculture Faculty member may introduce, for discussion only, any item not on the agenda at the appropriate time during regularly scheduled Agriculture Faculty meetings.
  7. The minutes of each Agriculture Faculty meeting shall be distributed to each Agriculture Faculty member within 10 days after the meeting, and to the Offices of the President, Vice-Presidents, Deans, and Directors.
  8. Special meetings, including virtual meetings, may be called either by the Dean or by the Agenda and Policy Committee, or upon written request to the Agenda and Policy Committee by 10 or more Agriculture Faculty members. At these meetings, the same rules of agenda and procedure shall apply as at in-person meetings.
  9. Emergency meetings, including virtual meetings, of the Agriculture Faculty may be called by the Dean or their designee in consultation with a representative of the Agenda and Policy Committee by verbal notification of each Department Head and Administrative Office at least two hours before such an emergency meeting is to be convened. Regular rules of procedure shall apply except that such emergency meetings may consider and take appropriate action on emergency issues only.

ARTICLE IV. COMMITTEES OF THE FACULTY OF AGRICULTURE

- A. The committees of this Agriculture Faculty include the following: Area Promotions Committee, Standing Committees of the Agriculture Faculty, Ad Hoc Committees of the Agriculture Faculty, and Administrative Committees. The Dean shall distribute annually to all Agriculture Faculty members a list giving the membership of all committees of these types.
  1. Area Promotions Committee. This committee shall receive and act upon the recommendations of the Primary Committees in Agriculture in the regular promotions procedure of the University. Membership of this committee shall include the Dean of Agriculture who shall be the non-voting Chairperson and call the meetings, the Associate Dean of Academic Programs, the Associate Dean of Purdue Extension, the Associate Dean of Agricultural Research and Graduate Education, the Associate Dean of International Programs, and the Associate Dean of Multicultural Programs; all these units are in the College of Agriculture. Membership also includes Instructional Department Heads, and Agriculture Faculty Representatives (as described hereafter in Article IV) of the departments that normally generate promotions. A quorum of this committee shall consist of seven-eighths of its membership with at least one-third of those present being Agriculture Faculty representatives. Absentee ballots shall not be permitted. This committee will carry out its functions in agreement with the West Lafayette Campus Promotion and Tenure Policy.
    - a. Eligibility to serve as an Agriculture Faculty representative of this committee shall be limited to tenured Full Professors in Agriculture who do not have major administrative responsibilities.
    - b. The Agriculture Faculty of each department shall elect one eligible Agriculture Faculty representative to the committee according to the following procedures.
      - i. Candidates shall be nominated at an open meeting of the Agriculture Faculty of the department.
      - ii. Each nominee must express willingness to serve if elected.

- iii. Elections shall be by written ballot in which all members of the Agriculture Faculty (as defined in Article I, A) in residence of a department have an opportunity to vote.
    - iv. To be elected, a candidate must receive a majority of ballots cast.
    - v. Elections shall be concluded before July 1 of the year in which the term of service on the committee begins.
  - c. The regular term of service for Agriculture Faculty representatives shall be three years, with approximately one-third of the apportionment elected each year according to a rotation schedule among the departments. The Agenda and Policy Committee shall be empowered to establish details of the rotation schedule and to make adjustments in this schedule if necessitated by a change in the number of departments. Each regular term of service shall begin July 1. There shall be no restrictions on consecutive terms of service.
  - d. An Agriculture Faculty representative who is unable to complete the term of service or who is unable to participate in the affairs of the Area Promotions Committee shall be replaced by the department represented. Procedures for filling such unexpired terms or temporary vacancies on the Committee shall be the same as for the election to a full term, except for the time of election.
- 2. Standing Committees of the Agriculture Faculty. Such committees shall deal with policy or action matters of continuing concern to the Agriculture Faculty. They shall be established or terminated only under the provisions of the constitution.
  - a. Terms of membership on all Standing Committees shall commence one month prior to the last official day of the spring semester unless otherwise specified. Before the last official day of the spring semester, the newly elected Chairperson shall provide the Secretary of the Agriculture Faculty with a list of the officers of their committee. Members of Standing Committees shall be elected prior to March 1 in an open meeting of each department, unless otherwise specifically stated. No Department Head shall be elected to serve.
  - b. Unless otherwise specifically stated, terms of membership shall be three years for elected members, with one-third of the members newly elected each year. Unless otherwise stated, no member shall be eligible for immediate re-election after completion of a full-term.
  - c. Excepting the Grade Appeals Committee, a Chairperson shall be elected annually in a meeting held no later than the last official day of the spring semester or May 1, whichever is earlier, by majority vote of the newly elected and continuing voting members. The organizational meeting shall be called and chaired by the retiring Chairperson.
  - d. Each committee has the responsibility for organizing itself, establishing a frequency for conducting business commensurate with achieving stated objectives in each area.
  - e. At least once each academic year, committee Chairpersons shall review with committee members those sections of the constitution and/or university policies on standing committees that apply to the activities of that committee.
  - f. Each committee may appoint such sub-committees as it deems necessary.
  - g. Each Standing Committee shall submit annually a written report to the Agriculture Faculty.
  - i. Agenda and Policy Committee. The functions of this committee shall be to maintain liaison between the administrative officials of Agriculture and the Agriculture Faculty, and to guide the Agriculture Faculty in the efficient exercise of its powers.
    - A. Schedule, announce, and prepare the agenda for Agriculture Faculty meetings in cooperation with the Dean.
    - B. Identify problems and counsel the Dean on policy matters of concern to the Agriculture Faculty.

- C. Provide for periodic reports to the Agriculture Faculty from the Dean and the major administrative officers in the areas of teaching, research, and extension.
  - D. Act as a committee on committees: conduct the election of Senate representatives from Agriculture; and coordinate the activities of other standing committees of the Agriculture Faculty.
  - E. The membership of the Agenda and Policy Committee shall consist of a voting representative from each Instructional Department and the Chairperson of the Senate representatives from Agriculture. The Dean, or their designee, and the Secretary of the Agriculture Faculty shall serve as non-voting members of the committee.
- ii. Curriculum and Student Relations Committee (CSRC). The functions of this committee shall be to coordinate and evaluate on a continuing basis undergraduate course work numbered 10000 through 59999, curricula, and teaching offered by the Instructional Departments of the College of Agriculture; to examine and make recommendations to the assembled Agriculture Faculty on proposed changes in course work, curricula, and degree requirements; and to ensure prompt attention to educational problems of students. The CSRC may make final decisions on the following items and report to assembled Agriculture Faculty: 1) change in course title; 2) expiration of a course; 3) change in course number; 4) Registrar designation of a course (course type); 5) change in requisites; and 6) cross-listing courses; including changes to the Plan of Study to reflect the above. Decisions from the Committee on these items must be unanimous, and any of the above may be sent to the assembled Agriculture Faculty at the discretion of the Committee. In addition, once CSRC has completed its evaluation of any new course proposals, new curricula (major, concentration, minor, certificate), or Plan of Study changes not addressed in numbers 1-6 above, documents will get distributed monthly for all faculty to review. If no Faculty expresses concern about the distributed documents within a 2-week period after distribution, they will be considered approved. If there are objections, they will be passed to the document originators to address concerns followed by re-initiating the revision, review, and approval process. If objections occur again, the curricula decision will be brought to a COA Faculty meeting for discussion.

Membership of this committee shall be one representative from each Instructional Department. The Agriculture Faculty representative to the university Undergraduate Curriculum Council shall serve as an ex officio, non-voting member. Pro-tempore members may be appointed by the Dean to give recognition to interdisciplinary and other programs. The Associate Dean of Academic Programs or their designee; the Senior Assistant Director of Academic Programs; and the Associate Dean of Agricultural Research and Graduate Education or their designee shall serve as ex officio members. One undergraduate student and one graduate student shall serve as non-voting members. Student members shall be randomly selected by the Secretary of the Agriculture Faculty from a pool of one undergraduate student and one graduate student nominated by the Department Head from each Instructional Department.

- iii. Grade Appeals Committee. The function of this committee is to provide recourse to a student who believes that an inappropriate grade has been assigned as a result of prejudice, caprice, or other improper conditions such as mechanical error, or assignment of a grade inconsistent with those assigned other students. Additionally, a student may challenge the reduction of a grade assigned for his/her alleged dishonesty.
- A. This committee shall consist of three members of the instructional Agriculture Faculty; two students, undergraduate or graduate, corresponding to the status of the appellant; and a non-voting Chairperson. The Chairperson will be an Assistant or Associate Dean appointed by the Dean.
    - 1. Faculty membership of this committee shall be randomly selected by the Chairperson of the Agenda and Policy Committee from a pool consisting of one Agriculture Faculty member elected annually from each Instructional

Department. Three members will be selected as regular members and all others in the pool shall serve as alternate members. No member shall serve more than two consecutive terms.

2. Student membership shall consist of two undergraduate students and two graduate students. In addition, there will be nine alternates from each category selected to be used as necessary.

Undergraduate student members shall be selected in a random fashion from a pool of students nominated by the Department Head from each Instructional Department. Annually, one undergraduate student is to be nominated by the Department Head from each Instructional Department. Before the last day of the spring semester, the Secretary of the Agriculture Faculty in consultation with the Chairperson of the Agenda and Policy Committee, shall randomly select two undergraduate students from the pool and convey their names to the Chairperson of the Grade Appeals Committee. The remaining undergraduate students in the pool shall be considered alternate members of the committee to serve as necessary.

Graduate student members shall be selected in a random fashion from a pool of students from each Instructional Department. Annually graduate students from each Instructional Department shall elect one graduate student from their Instructional Department to serve in the pool for a one-year period. Before the last official day of the spring semester, the Secretary of the Agriculture Faculty in consultation with the Chairperson of the Agenda and Policy Committee shall randomly select two graduate students from the pool and convey their names to the Chairperson of the Grade Appeals Committee. The remaining graduate students in the pool shall be considered alternate members of the committee to serve as necessary.

3. Ad Hoc Committees of the Agriculture Faculty. Such committees shall deal with policy or action matters not delegated to an established standing committee and unlikely to require continuing attention. Such committees shall be established by the Dean or by vote of the Agriculture Faculty. Unless otherwise provided, such committees shall function by the following rules:
  - a. Size, membership, and leadership of these committees shall be determined by the Dean, in consultation with the Agenda and Policy Committee.
  - b. Such committees shall make a written report and final recommendations to the Agriculture Faculty.
  - c. Membership shall extend for the duration of the committee, and the committee shall be disbanded upon acceptance of its report.
4. Administrative Committees upon which Agriculture Faculty Members Serve. Such committees shall deal with regular tasks of administering the established responsibilities of the subdivisions within Agriculture. Proposals for major changes in activities or policies stemming from these committees will be reported to the Agriculture Faculty. Except when otherwise provided, these committees shall be established by the Dean after consultation with appropriate members of the College leadership team, Agenda and Policy Committee, and/or members of the Agriculture Faculty to determine the need, membership, terms of service, leadership, and reporting requirements.

ARTICLE V. REPRESENTATION TO THE UNIVERSITY SENATE

- A. Responsibilities. The Senators from Agriculture shall be responsible for regular participation in the activities of the University Senate, for communicating to the Faculty of Agriculture and its subdivisions the direction of Senate actions and deliberations, and for transmitting viewpoints and discussions of their Agriculture Faculty to the University Senate.

B. Election Procedure.

1. The Agriculture Faculty shall elect the number of Senators apportioned to Agriculture. Terms of office shall be three years, with approximately one-third of the apportionment elected each year prior to February 1. Senators may serve only two successive terms.
2. Each Instructional Department shall have at least one, but no more than two, Agriculture Faculty serving as Senators.
3. Each Instructional Department shall elect one Agriculture Faculty member (as defined in Article I, A) to serve as its Senator according to the following procedures:
  - a. Candidates must be nominated at an open meeting of the department.
  - b. Nominees must state their willingness to serve after reviewing Senate rules of operation and attendance.
  - c. Elections shall be by secret ballot in which all members of the Agriculture Faculty in residence of a department have an opportunity to vote.
  - d. To be elected, a candidate must receive a majority of ballots cast.
4. In addition to the Senators elected as departmental representatives, Senators-at-large shall be elected and so designated by the Agriculture Faculty to fill the remaining number of Senate vacancies assigned to Agriculture.
  - a. Each department eligible to elect a Senator may submit only one nominee for Senator-at-large. Such nominees will be selected by the departments in a manner identical to regular Senators. Nominees will be forwarded to the Secretary of the Agriculture Faculty.
  - b. Election of Senators-at-large shall be by mail or electronic ballot of the entire Agriculture Faculty. Ballots shall contain names of all candidates in random order. Each Agriculture Faculty member may cast votes equal to but not to exceed the number of Senate vacancies to be filled. That number of candidates receiving the most votes shall be elected.
  - c. The number of votes cast for each candidate shall be filed with the Dean.
5. Immediately following each annual election, all Senators from Agriculture shall meet at the call of the Dean and elect a Chairperson. The Chairperson shall act as a spokesperson for the delegation and shall serve on the Agenda and Policy Committee.
6. Senators unable to complete their terms or unable to attend Senate meetings for periods of one regular semester or more shall be replaced. Replacement for shorter periods of absence shall be at the option of the Senator in question or the department represented. In either case, the replacement of a Senator shall be for the duration of the unexpired term. Senators who are aware of the forthcoming need for their replacement should notify the Chairperson of the Agenda and Policy Committee.
  - a. To replace Senators elected under B.3 above, the department represented shall elect a replacement (according to the procedures of B.3) upon request by the Chairperson of the Agenda and Policy Committee.
  - b. Senators-at-large shall be replaced by the Agenda and Policy Committee from the most recent list of candidates filed under Article V, B.4, above. Candidates not previously elected shall be considered alternates, in the order of votes received. Should a second replacement be required, or should the first alternate be unavailable, the second alternate would be selected, etc.

ARTICLE VI. AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

- A. Initiation of Amendments. An amendment to this constitution may be initiated by two-thirds vote of the Agenda and Policy Committee, or by written petition signed by 10 members of the Faculty of Agriculture to the Agenda and Policy Committee.

- B. Ratification. Any properly initiated amendment petition shall be placed on the agenda of the next regular or special meeting of the Agriculture Faculty for discussion. At such a meeting, any proposed amendment may be further amended by a two-thirds vote of those in attendance. Thereafter, it shall be submitted to a mail or electronic ballot of the entire Agriculture Faculty, in which a favorable vote by a majority of those voting shall be necessary for ratification.

ARTICLE VII. REVIEW OF THE CONSTITUTION

- A. The Constitution shall be reviewed by the Agenda and Policy Committee every five years. Any changes resulting from such review shall follow the conditions of Article VI.
