

ABOUT PURDUE

Purdue University, founded in 1869, is a land grant university located in Indiana. Referred to as "the cradle of astronauts" Purdue has more than two dozen graduates in space, including the first and last man to walk on the moon. The university is ranked among the best public universities in the United States. Purdue has also been named one of the World's Most Innovative Companies – coming in at No. 16 overall and No. 1 in education according to Fast Company. We offer more than 200 majors and 80 graduate programs across eight colleges and schools to almost 50,000 students from 128 different countries.

Purdue University's mission exemplifies service to citizens of Indiana, the United States and the world through discovery, learning, and engagement. Purdue values diversity and excellence in its faculty, staff and students and is committed to building the institution's and its members' academic and professional successes.

ABOUT THE CCO

At the Center for Career Opportunities, we have been widely recognized for offering transformative career services and innovative technologies. Ranked third nationally by Collegemagazine.com for offering best career services, Purdue's CCO is lauded for our leadership in the field, web presence and specific initiatives such as our Career Closet and collaborative synergies with campus partners. In addition to our 22 staff members, we benefit from the help of many amazing student employees. In 2019-20 year, we recorded 1,788 unique employer organizations visiting campus to recruit Purdue students.

Our team is passionate about helping students explore majors, find meaningful experiential learning opportunities, and market themselves for great jobs or prestigious graduate/professional school study. We are sensitive to the challenges experienced by first generation students and students of color and we prioritize staff diversity. Of the 43 staff members hired since 2001, 33 have been women and 18 represented ethnic minorities. We are a hard-working group, yet one of our values is to make our workplace fun.
