

Marketing and Communications Intern – Summer 2026

Visit us at the College of Ag Career Fair on Oct. 7!

The marketing team at Indiana Farm Bureau, Inc. carries out requests pertaining to media relations, brand and public policy public relations campaigns, creates the design materials to promote Farm Bureau events and programs and oversees all print and digital communications.

As our summer intern, you will work approximately 37.5 hours per week at our downtown headquarters, from mid-May to mid-August. The selected intern will be assigned to projects overseen by the INFB marketing team, such as:

- Assisting with the creation of social media and video content featured on the Indiana Farm Bureau social channels and website.
- Graphic design materials in support of Farm Bureau events and sponsored programs, such as the Indiana State Fair.
- Print and digital content creation for our member volunteers and INFB staff.

Other projects may include writing to enhance consumer understanding of modern agriculture and timely topics. The role will require some day travel around the state to capture content.

Why intern with us?

- We are Indiana's largest farm organization, advocating for agriculture and improving the economic and social welfare of our member families and our communities.
- Paid internship in a welcoming environment where we are committed to helping you grow personally and professionally.
- Downtown location with free parking, onsite café and fitness center.

Preferred qualifications:

- A college student in their sophomore through senior year majoring in marketing, agricultural communications or a related field.
- Experience and interest in video editing, using Adobe Premiere Pro, social media management and production.
- Prior work developing branded content using Adobe Illustrator, InDesign and/or Photoshop.
- An interest or background in agriculture.
