

Youth Engagement Intern - Summer 2026

Visit us at the College of Ag Career Fair on Oct. 7!

The youth engagement intern will function as part of the education and engagement team at Indiana Farm Bureau, Inc., which focuses on educating students and the public about agriculture, as well as offering networking and leadership development opportunities.

As a summer intern you will work approximately 37.5 hours per week at our downtown headquarters, from the end of May to mid-August:

- working with youth programs (4-H/FFA/Collegiate Farm Bureau) to develop and enhance programming with these groups and activities that enhance INFB's industry relations
- helping plan and execute INFB's exhibitor experience at the Indiana State Fair
- helping coordinate and implement INFB's Young Farmers & Ag Professionals summer awards and competitions
- assisting with leadership development workshops and programming.

Why intern with us?

- We are Indiana's largest farm organization, advocating for agriculture and improving the economic and social welfare of our member families and our communities
- Paid internship in a welcoming environment where we are committed to helping you grow personally and professionally
- Downtown location with free parking, onsite café and fitness center.

Preferred qualifications

- Applicants pursuing an agricultural degree who understand youth livestock programming
- An agricultural background.

Required qualifications

- Applicants who are self-motivated, creative, detail-oriented, and can establish clearly defined goals and objectives for projects
- A college student in their sophomore through senior year.
