

AGRONOMY INTERNSHIP- SUMMER 2023

Summary

The summer internship in Agronomy is primarily focused on in-field agronomy experience. The intern will primarily work to assist agronomist in their daily activities. The in-field experience gained will be crucial in building agronomic skills. This internship has the potential to lead to a full-time position.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

- Crop Scouting
 - Stand counts
 - Growth staging
 - Monitor for: weed escapes, insect out-breaks, disease pressure
 - Use field health satellite imagery for guidance and direction
 - Complete digital report for each field scouted
 - Communicate findings with customers and supervisor
- Ag + Trials Plot
 - Involvement and assistance in planting, applications, record keeping and maintenance.
- Management, Sales and Application
 - Experience all sides of agronomy operations
- Deliveries
 - Assist with transport of various products from in between locations
- Research Project
 - Determine agronomic topic of interest, research and collect data throughout summer, complete and present presentation at end of the internship.

- Supports Ag Plus' stated Vision, Mission, and Business Values.
- Projects a positive attitude to customers and employees at all times.
- Provides outstanding and courteous customer service.
- Promotes and supports Ag Plus' agronomy programs.
- Maintains facility and equipment so that they have a good appearance and are always in working order.
- Promotes Ag Plus' products and services to customers

Qualifications

Employment is contingent on passing pre-employment drug test, driver check, and signing employment agreements.

How to Apply

Please apply online at www.agplusinc.com/employment and/or e-mail resumes to AgPlusHR@agplusinc.com