

Job Title: QC Project Manager / Function Leader

Location: Wuxi, China

Key Responsibilities:

1. As QC representatives to participate in projects from early product development stage to final commercial production. Work with the CMC team of projects and understand the scope of the project and all vital aspects related to QC activities.
2. Build effective partnership with other internal teams to move project through all phases of the development and commercial stages.
3. Serve as the liaison of QC and communicate with the client and other stakeholders in a project. Build and maintain excellent relationships with client.
4. Gather and convey project information to the QC team and ensure that all team members understand the scope and deliverables of the project.
5. Prepare and track the schedule of QC activities and ensure that the QC part of the project is carried out on time.
6. Prepare GMP documents, including but not limited to release and stability protocols, in-process sampling and testing protocols, special study protocol per client's requirement, study reports, etc.

Qualifications:

1. Bachelor or MS in Analytical Chemistry, Biochemistry, Microbiology, Biology, Molecular Biology, Biological Engineering, or related field. Degree of Master, or a Degree of Bachelor with at least 2 years of pharmaceutical industry experience.
2. Outstanding oral and written communication skills in both English and Chinese .
3. Critical thinking, scientific reasoning and problem solving skills.

HOW TO APPLY

Please submit your cv to meiyan.lu@ideal-careerbridge.com

