

TECH & AI JOBS IN GOVERNMENT

Government work impacts millions.

How is tech and AI affecting government jobs and your part in creating our society? We invite engineering, science, and liberal arts majors to join us in exploring how we will shape the future.

PUBLIC IMPACT FAIR CAREERS & RESOURCES

PANEL DISCUSSION

SEPTEMBER 9

STEW 310

11:30 AM - 12:20 PM

FEDERAL RESERVE
BANK of
ST. LOUIS

Indiana Office of Technology
Powering a State that Works.

Panelists Jim Fuchs, Vice President of the St. Louis Federal Reserve; Rob Neus, U.S. Department of State Foreign Service Officer; and Lucy Lankford, Strategic Workforce Planning Assistant Director of the Indiana Department of Technology Moderated by: Mark D. Ward, Executive Director of Purdue's The Data Mine

This is a cooperation between Purdue University's Public Impact Fair: Careers and Resources and Industrial Roundtable. The Public Impact Fair takes place September 9 from 1pm to 6pm in HCRN Honors Hall and is an initiative of Purdue University's Center for C-SPAN Scholarship and Engagement, College of Agriculture, John Martinson Honors College, Purdue Policy Research Institute, and Roger C. Stewart Leadership and Professional Development Department.