

KENYA STUDY ABROAD

COFFEE, TEA AND ME

Our Mission

“To learn, engage, and build relationships between Purdue and Kenyan community members through exploration in agriculture and business.”

Overall objective: “Is to encourage . . .”

- Broadening mindsets on opportunities in agriculture
- Strong academic and business partnerships
- Intercultural awareness and immersion
- Personal growth and development of students
- Team synergy and cooperation learning

Why Kenya?

- Established reliable hosts
- Mirimar College, University of Nairobi
- and Jomokenyatta University Visits
- Applications to agriculture, environment, food, engineering , health,sustainability and community engagement
- Vibrant culture and people
- Varied climates
- Amazing food
- Wildlife

Course Structure

- BTNY 43100: Coffee Tea and Me. (3 Credits)
- On Site Assessments and Journals
- 2 Prep Meeting

-
- About $4,100 total (including transportation, food, housing, etc.)
 - Scholarships are available!!
 - Applications for trip will go through the Purdue Study Abroad website....Make your deposit to secure your spot
 - Get your passport so you're ready to go!
 - Will work to finalize pricing soon and determine if flight is included

STUDY ABROAD PERU

COFFEE, TEA AND ME

Maymester
May 6-20 , 2023

- BTNY 43100
- 3 credit hours
- Open to all years & majors.
- Personal growth and development of students.
- Intercultural awareness and immersion.

Questions? Email Dr. Jeneen Fields, BPP, or Kara Hartman, IPIA