

Exploring AgriFood Value Chain in China and Japan

Destinations

Tokyo, Kyoto, Beijing, Shanghai, Hangzhou, Xi'an

Program

We will explore China and Japan, two of the largest Asian cultures and also major US agricultural exporting markets. We will visit the US Embassy, agricultural fields, US business executives, Chinese and Japanese farmers, entrepreneurs, and university. We will be in Beijing touring the Forbidden City, and the Great Wall, in Xi'an visiting the Terra Cotta Warriors, in Shanghai experiencing the modern economy; in Tokyo touring the Imperial Palace and Meiji Shrine, interacting with Purdue alumni, and in Kyoto to see agricultural cooperatives and markets.

Dates of Program

Tentatively May 13 – May 27, 2024, 15 days

Credits

3 credits, no prerequisites, open to all majors

Program Fees

$3500 (tentative) plus international airfare, covering tuition, train, bus in JP and CN, hotel, meals, tour site entry fees, and insurance.

Instructors

Dr. Holly Wang, Ag Economics

wanghong@purdue.edu

Patrick Tiffany, Food Science,

ptiffan@purdue.edu

Previous example China Study Abroad (purdue.edu)

Students from previous trip said _____

- I really enjoy seeing the Great Wall. It was mind blowing.
- I really enjoyed the site-seeing part of the trip, but I think the most impressive part was visiting the various businesses and seeing how they were growing.

Apply Here

<https://www.studyabroad.purdue.edu/programs/flyer.cfm?flyer=1867&SICountryCode=761>

