Visiting Asst Professor

The University of Iowa, Department of Geographical and Sustainability Sciences
Visiting Assistant Professor, Physical Geography/GIS

The University of Iowa Department of Geographical & Sustainability Sciences invites applications for a Visiting Assistant Professor position for academic year 2016/2017, with a possible one-year extension. We seek candidates with the ability to teach courses in physical geography and introductory GIS. Additional course assignments will depend on the candidate’s expertise and will be consistent with the programmatic needs of the department and students. The ability to teach such courses as biogeography, landscape ecology, or GIS (with an interest in online delivery) is desirable, but other courses in the candidate’s field are welcome. Teaching will include both lower and upper division courses. The appointment will begin in August 2016.

A PhD or equivalent terminal degree in Geography or related field is preferred at the time of appointment. Applicants who have completed significant progress toward a doctoral degree by the start of the appointment will be considered. Salary is commensurate with the experience and qualifications of the candidate.

Candidates must submit applications online at http://jobs.uiowa.edu/ (requisition # 68832). The submitted application materials should include a cover letter, curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching interest, evidence of teaching ability and contact information for three letters of recommendation. Screening of applications begins June 1, 2016 and will continue until the position is filled. Questions regarding this position can be directed to Dr. Marc Linderman (marc-linderman@uiowa.edu or 319-335-1451).

The University of Iowa is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply and will receive consideration for employment free from discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, age, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, religion, associational preference, status as a qualified individual with a disability, or status as a protected veteran.