

Book Harmon Leadership Forum
October 28, 2014
Dean's Auditorium, Pfendler Hall
Everyone is Welcome!

Students attending will:

- Learn from a personal story of a successful industry leader,
- Become more aware of leadership needed in agricultural careers,
- Strengthen the intentional planning of their personal leadership, and
- Gain a better understanding of national and international leadership in agriculture.

Attendance applies towards the College of Agriculture Leadership Development Certificate.

Schedule of Events:

- 12:00 Lunch: Pizza Provided
12:30 Discussion of College of Agriculture Leadership Development Certificate Program
- 1:00 BHL Forum: Planning (Living) Your Personal Leadership Journey Questions & Discussion
- 3:00 Lilly 3-113: ANSC Distinguished Alumni Presentations and Remarks Open Reception

Dr. Mike Lemmon, CEO
Whiteshire Hamrock, LLC

Dr. Lemmon received his DVM from Purdue in 1975, is a graduate of the Executive Veterinary Program and of the AgrIInstitute IN AG Leadership program. He has served as a USDA, FSA, and NSR consultant in South America, Europe, and Asia. Mike lives in Albion with his wife, Denise. The couple has four children and seven grandchildren. All four children attended Purdue and achieved advanced degrees.

Mike has been with Whiteshire Hamrock, LLC, for more than 30 years. Whiteshire Hamrock has a joint venture in a company in Hunan province, China, to enhance integrated pork production and feed research internationally.