

COLOMBIA

3 CREDIT UNDERGRAD SUMMER COURSE

Food Security and Sustainable Development

This 3-credit, three-week undergraduate course covers a wide range of issues from social & demographic changes, the physical environment, global climate change, economic systems, and global trade. Students spend two weeks in Colombia and one week on campus at Purdue.

May 31, 2016 –
June 16, 2016

$2,100 total, includes ALL expenses

All students eligible for $1,000 scholarship

Spanish fluency NOT required

Apply early-limit of 20 students

TO APPLY, CONTACT

Adriela Fernandez
Director of Latin Programming
Agricultural Economics

afernan@purdue.edu

765-494-4136