

Cargill Global Scholars Program 2020-2021 Launch

Cargill and the Institute of International Education (IIE) are pleased to announce the launch of the 2020-2021 Cargill Global Scholars Program application cycle. As a valued partner university of the Cargill Global Scholars Program, we are very pleased that three Purdue University students have been selected as scholars since the launch of the program in 2013.

We look forward to receiving more applications for this year's competition from eligible Purdue University students who:

- Will be graduating with their bachelor's degree between May 2023 and August 2024
- Are a U.S. citizen or permanent resident
- Demonstrate high academic performance and leadership potential

Students in the following fields of interest are encouraged to apply:

- Agriculture Related Fields
- Biochemistry
- Biology
- Business
- Computer or Data Science
- Engineering
- Environmental Studies and Sustainability
- Food Science
- International Relations

Application deadline:
March 4, 2021

Ten scholars will be chosen in the United States for the ninth cohort of the Cargill Global Scholars Program. The scholars will receive:

- Annual scholarship award of $2,500 for up to two years
- Participation in two fully-funded Leadership Development Seminars held during Summer 2021 and Summer 2022
- Opportunities to network with fellow scholars from Brazil, China, India, Indonesia, and Russia
- One-on-one mentorship from Cargill executives in the United States and abroad

We are currently accepting applications. To access the application or learn more about the Cargill Global Scholars Program, please visit: CargillGlobalScholars.com.

For any questions, please contact the program team at IIE:

1- 844-803-9887 (toll-free) or e-mail us at:
Cargillglobalscholars@iie.org

Cargill[®]
Helping the world thrive