Scholarship opportunity for full-time students!

Here’s what you need to know:

- You have to be an Indiana resident
- You must be at least a sophomore level student
- The scholarship is $1000
- The scholarship is for the 2015-2016 academic year
- You need to be taking classes towards a major/minor related to resource conservation or environmental education
- The deadline for applicants is June 15, 2015

Find out more details at www.indianawildlife.org

“...To promote the conservation, sound management, and sustainable use of Indiana's wildlife and wildlife habitat through education, advocacy, and action..."