Americans for Tax Reform (ATR) – Internships

Paid Internships- $10.50/hour

Internship Description: Americans for Tax Reform offers the chance to work alongside some of the best political advocates in Washington, as well as the opportunity for increasing responsibility. Interns are assigned to work on policy issues side by side with members of our staff. As a key part of the ATR team, interns work on projects such as the Taxpayer Protection Pledge (both federal and state candidates pledge not to raise taxes) and tax battles across the country.

Many interns due to their work have been showcased on Drudge Report, The Daily Caller, The Washington Times, and other political publications!

Qualifications: Applicants must be organized, responsible, independent, and effective under deadlines. Exceptional written, social media, and oral communication skills are essential. Interns are required to have a professional demeanor and phone manner. Applicants should have a strong interest in tax reform and economic policy, and a fundamental orientation toward liberty.

ATR accepts applications from undergraduate and graduate students of all majors. Full-time and part-time interns are paid hourly. The positions can be taken for credit through the applicant's home university or college, coinciding with spring, summer, and fall semester dates. Please note that priority is given to those who can make a 16 week internship commitment for the fall and spring semesters and a 14 week commitment during the summer.

To apply, please complete our application form.

Miriam Roff
Operations Manager and Intern Coordinator
Americans for Tax Reform

Phone: (202) 785-0266
Email: mroff@atr.org