ABOUT THE INTERNSHIP

The Center for C-SPAN Scholarship & Engagement (CCSE) Internship Program helps further develop the professionalism, talents, skills, and education of our interns. CCSE interns come from a wide variety of majors including communication, political science, public relations, marketing, and more.

Spring 2022 Internship dates: January 10, 2022 through May 6, 2022.

JOB DESCRIPTION

During this internship, you will expand your awareness of the political process, build knowledge of technology platforms, improve your understanding of media communications, and develop research skills using the C-SPAN Video Library. As a CCSE intern, you will also have the unique opportunity to interact with nationally-known journalists, politicians, authors, and academics. Interns are paid $11 per hour and work 15 hours per week at the CCSE offices.

DUTIES

- Assist with programs that encourage the use of the C-SPAN Video Library
- Work with professors to research and create C-SPAN video clips for use in their courses
- Assist in organizing and promotion of CCSE events including the Undergraduate Research Competition, The Conversation, Boilers Go to Washington, DC, and Pizza & Politics
- Take part in student outreach opportunities such as classroom presentations and CCSE events
- Develop social media posts and update CCSE social media accounts
- Work with audio/visual technology for online and in-person events

IMPORTANT APPLICATION INFORMATION

✓ You must be a full-time undergraduate student with interest in politics and political communication
✓ You must be able to work 15 hours per week for the duration of the internship
✓ You must submit an application, resume, and cover letter at: https://qrco.de/CCSEInternship22

Application Deadline: November 22, 2021

Interviews via Zoom begin November 29, 2021

Questions: Andrea Langrish at alangris@purdue.edu

Because cover letters and resumes are processed as we receive them, please submit your materials at the earliest possible date.