Field Scout
Hubner Industries LLC West Lebanon, IN
Duration of position: May 15, 2018 – Aug. 5, 2018

Performs regular inspections of grower and customer crop fields to monitor crop health and ongoing conditions. Provides inspection reports in a timely and accurate manner to increase customer and grower satisfaction and maintain the reputation and profitability of the organization.

Job Functions:

- Drives company vehicle to designated field locations.
- Inspect fields and discusses results with Production Manager.
- Documents all findings on inspection reports and provides reports to Production Manager.
- Attends scheduled field scout meetings.
- Assists with additional agricultural retail and operational duties as time allows.

Other Job Functions:

- Supports and contributes to company goals and objectives through collaboration efforts.

Requirements:

- Must be at least 18 years of age.
- Possesses a basic understanding of production agriculture.
- Demonstrates essential abilities including communication, decision making and business knowledge.
- Must have and maintain a valid driver’s license, a satisfactory driving record, and the ability to travel independently as needed.
- Required to work in all weather conditions (hot, wet, etc.)
- Must be able to walk fields and conduct visual inspections of crops.
- Ability and willingness to participate in required training that may include education on policies and procedures and safety as it relates to the requirements of the position.
- Ability and willingness to participate in a drug test and it must indicate a negative result in order to work for the organization.

Please contact: frausty.zimmerman@hubnerindustries.com.