2018 Public Policy Legislative Internship

Indiana Farm Bureau, Inc., Indiana’s largest nonprofit farm organization, is seeking one policy intern for the 2018 spring semester.

Indiana Farm Bureau, Inc. works to be an effective advocate for farmers and through its policies and programs, promote agriculture and improve the economic and social welfare of member families. Indiana Farm Bureau has over 256,658 members, representing nearly 73,068 farm families across Indiana. For more information about Indiana Farm Bureau, please visit our website http://www.infb.org/. This is NOT an insurance company.

This intern will work up to 37.5 hours per week on policy analysis and grassroots programming associated with the 2018 legislative session. The successful candidate would begin by January 8, 2018 and work through the spring semester.

The policy intern will work with the Indiana Farm Bureau Public Policy Team during the 2018 state legislative session and the weeks that encompass the spring 2018 semester at Purdue. The public policy team is responsible for advocacy, policy development and policy implementation, as well as identifying, monitoring and representing agricultural interests on emerging issues.

The internship is a full-time opportunity and will involve working on activities that enhance Farm Bureau member engagement in public policy and understanding how policy will impact Indiana agriculture. Work will be five days per week at the INFB corporate offices in Indianapolis and at the State Capitol.

Strong written and oral communication skills and organizational skills are required. Applicant should be self-motivated; detail oriented and exhibit strong interest in public policy issues.

An agricultural background is preferred but not required. The pay rate is $12/hr. from Indiana Farm Bureau and applicant will also receive a $4,000 stipend from the Purdue College of Agriculture.

Any college student in their sophomore through senior year is encouraged to apply.

All materials must be submitted by Friday, November 17, 2017.

How to Apply: Applications for this position are processed through the Indiana Farm Bureau Insurance Company website. Indiana Farm Bureau Insurance is an affiliated company of Indiana Farm Bureau, Inc.

Any candidate interested should submit a resume and cover letter via email to ppt@infarmbureau.org by November 17, 2017 expressing interest in the spring semester opportunity. Candidates may be asked to formally apply through the Indiana Farm Bureau Insurance Company website for processing. Indiana Farm Bureau Insurance is an affiliated company of Indiana Farm Bureau, Inc.
