2006 Charles O. McGaughey Leadership Awards applications now available!

Charles O. McGaughey (pronounced Mickgo'y') Leadership Awards will be presented in the Spring semester of 2006 to at least seven Purdue students. The amount of each award is at least $2,000. These awards are made possible by an endowment from the late Mr. McGaughey, a 1939 graduate of Purdue University. Mr. McGaughey developed these awards to honor Purdue undergraduates who show leadership abilities and the appreciation for basic American values.

An applicant must:

1. be an undergraduate student at the West Lafayette campus of Purdue University who will have completed at least two years as a full-fee student by the end of the Spring semester 2006;

2. have at least a 3.0 overall GPA;

3. have demonstrated an appreciation of the values of liberty and the democratic form of government and an appreciation of the importance of respect for others and for the diversity of the United States of America;

4. have evidenced no addiction to drugs or alcohol;

5. have no criminal record; and

6. submit one original and three copies (photocopies are acceptable) of the application packet by Friday, February 24, 2006 at 5 p.m.

Preference will be given to applicants whose majors are in the School of Liberal Arts, School of Science, and School of Management. Presentation of materials also will be considered.

Application packets are now available in Room 250 of Schleman Hall, the Black Cultural Center, the PSG office in Stewart Center (room G-6), the Latino Cultural Center and at http://www.purdue.edu/odos/sao/awards/mcgaughey.htm. Application deadline: Friday, February 24, 2006. For more information, contact the Student Activities and Organizations area of the Office of the Dean of Students at 494-1232 or sao@purdue.edu.
